

Marilyn is a professional keynote speaker, motivational speaker, conference speaker, seminar leader, and retreat facilitator/advisor/consultant and author. She is a successful businesswoman with international experience in corporate, government, and nonprofit organizations. As a public speaker, Marilyn's diverse background and experiences allow her to relate to corporations and organizations in many walks of life.

Marilyn's keynote speech topics are motivational, real to life, and inspirational. She has influenced thousands of people through her powerful presentations. She is an inspirational keynote speaker who has inspired many to lead. Her presentations are rich with content and individually made to meet your unique needs. Marilyn knows what it takes to produce results. Marilyn's keynote presentations are not only inspiring but will teach the audience to be thinkers and leaders in your organization.