

INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKER

Inspirational speaker Marilyn R. Beverley has touched thousands of lives in the Corporate World, the Volunteer World and Evangelism Ministry opening hearts and minds to seek their passion, purpose and calling in life and to seek to make a difference in their world.

- Marilyn is an inter-nationally acclaimed speaker and workshop facilitator/consultant.
- Marilyn worked in a career in the insurance industry attaining to a "million dollar" book of business through "Service Excellence".
- Marilyn has served in the volunteer world, including President of the Michigan Association of Healthcare Advocates (an organization of over 30,000 members)
- Marilyn is a professional motivational speaker and inspirational keynote speaker, business conference speaker, seminar leader, and corporate retreat facilitator.
- Marilyn is a senior executive advisor, consultant, author, and successful businesswoman.
- In the field of professional business speakers and motivational speakers Marilyn stands out for her real world approach to the pressures and opportunities those organizations face today.
- Marilyn relates key business principles, along with content that is true to life and insightful.
- Marilyn empowers her audiences through carefully developed and targeted keynotes, seminars, conferences and executive retreats.
- Marilyn's motivational and inspirational presentations are unique, meticulously crafted to meet the specific needs of the client whether it be an association meeting, convention, inspirational instruction and motivation, but also Marilyn includes the vision and resources needed to take the corporation and/or organization to the next level