

Marilyn's Style:

As an inspirational speaker, her presentation style is energetic, thought-provoking, challenging, content-rich and, at times, humorous yet full of passion and compassion.

Marilyn's inspirational style is enriched by her diverse background of thirty years in the business world, including the insurance industry, thirty years in the volunteer world, including President of the Michigan Association of Healthcare Advocates and Organization with over 30,000 members and also including over 30 years of service in Christian Leadership touching thousands of lives which allows her to relate key business principles with highly inspirational content, inspirational illustrations, inspirational stories and inspirational humor with a heart full of compassion.