

What Makes Marilyn A Special Speaker?

She will help your organization find the problems or issues that need to be improved upon and then take it to the next level, helping the attendees to find creative solutions. Then with attendee participation setting goals and accountability for those solutions to become reality.